Central Library Will Host Scott Paulson in an Old-School Musical Radio Show Angelica Eclar Will Provide Piano Accompaniment for the Tale of the Ugly Duckling

SAN DIEGO – The third concert of the 2011 Winter/Spring Concert Series of the City of San Diego Public Library will take place on Sunday, March 20, with Scott Paulson on a variety of instruments and sound effects and Angelica Eclar on piano. The FREE program will be held at 2:30 p.m. in the third floor auditorium of the Central Library, 820 E St., in downtown San Diego.

The program will be an old-school classical radio story hour for the young and the young at heart. Follow a music-filled springtime tale of an ugly duckling who becomes a beautiful swan, featuring Mr. Paulson and Ms. Eclar performing in the style of classic young people's music radio broadcasts, as well as:

- duck music from Prokofiev
- swan music from Tchaikovsky
- water music from Handel and Debussy
- storm music from Beethoven
- ragtime music from women composers

Scott Paulson is an award-winning soundscape artist who has been heard on radio, television and film. His own performance ensemble, The Teeny-Tiny Pit Orchestra, provides live music and sounds for silent film screenings, ballet productions, radio dramas, operas, and theatrical productions. Mr. Paulson plays oboe in Orchestra Nova, is the University Carillonner at UCSD, and directs various festivals for the UCSD Arts Library, including the Short Attention Span Chamber Music Series, the annual Toy Piano Festival, and the Not-So-Silent Film Festival. He also plays Sam the sound effects man at Cygnet Theatre's radio drama re-enactment of "It's A Wonderful Life."
